2011-2012

NEW ENGLAND CORPORATE COUNSEL ASSOCIATION, INC.

New England Corporate Counsel Association (NECCA) is an organization of in-house counsel from Massachusetts and other New England states that meets each month from September through June. Monthly meetings include seminars covering legal topics of common interest and provide an opportunity for members to share resources and to network.

NECCA provides opportunities for continuing professional education designed specifically for in-house counsel and a chance to meet colleagues with similar concerns.

NECCA's current membership of over 130 attorneys from more than 90 corporations includes lawyers with a broad and diverse range of business and legal experience.

The monthly meetings include a two-hour seminar on topics of importance to corporate counsel and offer an opportunity for questions and answers.

WHY BECOME A NECCA MEMBER?

- ◆ Expand your skills and knowledge through professional education
- ◆ Share your experience with other in-house counsel
- ◆ Network within your specialty areas on a regular basis
- ◆ Enhance your range of resources through information sharing

"The networking opportunities afforded by NECCA have been invaluable to me on both a professional and personal level."

"Continuing education is fundamental to our profession. The NECCA workshops provide real information I can use in my daily work."

"I look forward to meeting with people who are experiencing similar challenges."

MEMBERSHIP

You are eligible to be a NECCA member if (i) you were a member of NECCA as of June 1, 2011 and have continued your membership without interruption since that date, or (ii) you are an attorney-at-law (a) who is not a member of, employed by, or associated with, a law firm and (b) who renders legal services to a company or companies, either as an employee of such company or companies or other entity, or as an individual attorney whose practice is principally concerned with providing counsel to companies as an independent corporate counsel.

To renew your membership or to join NECCA for 2011-2012, please return the enclosed Membership Form along with your Membership Dues.
